The first killing frost in Roswell last year occurred October 28.

If the Elks Carnival brought on this spell of weather, it is only a fake and can't last long.

Probably the worst thing to be said against Delegate Andrews is that the Santa Fe New Mexican favors his re-election.

Next year the annual gathering of all the Masonic bodies of New Mexico will be held at Carlsbad, in order that the Mason may see the modern Garden of Eden.

No Republican can be elected in Chaves county without receiving Democratic votes, and that settles it. The Democrats fought out their differences at the primaries.

The Republican papers could well afford to flatter the Democratic candidate a little, if thereby they could only insure alliance in regard to the record of Delegate Andrews.

Naturally the Republican papers would like to have the opponents of Delegate Andrews say nothing about his Pennsylvania connections, but cleaning a stable is necessarily dirty work.

The Record is of the opinion that if all the cattle companies and other corporations of the Territory paid taxes proportional to those paid in Chaves county, the tax rate of the whole Territory could be greatly reduced.

The Record admits that salaries of county officers are too high, but it was a Republican legislature that made them so. The legislature would have prevented the law applying to the Pecos Valley counties if it could.

The Record did not mean Saturday to create the impression that Sheriff Woodruff had entangled his books, but only to call attention to the fact that he recognized the skill of Major Howell, and employed the Major to keep his books in order.

After all, it would be cruel not to allow the Republican organization of the county at least the privilege of howling. That is all the fun they will get out of the campaign, and the Democratic candidates are disposed to let them howl.

A great writer once said, "Humor is consistent with pathos, while wit is not." Possibly this accounts for the humor of the Santa Fe New Mexican being pathetic, its pathos being funny, and its lack of wit to distinguish between the two.

If the Record's campaign against Delegate Andrews is making votes for the gentleman from Pennsylvania, we cannot understand why the Las Vegas Optic should be so badly worked up about the matter, unless it also is against Andrews.

The newspaper war at Carlsbad has little to do with politics. It is a personal fight between rival papers who have been crowded away from the pie counter by Col. W. H. Mullane of the Sun who is feasting while the other fellows fight.

While not exactly endorsing the Record's suggestion that the Republican party of the Territory should have adopted the picture of a limburger cheese as an emblem, the Santa Fe New Mexican's editorials evidently are inspired by the smell of the cheese.

If there is anything crooked about the management of Chaves county affairs, why do not the Republicans appeal to Governor Hagerman? The Governor has removed sheriffs, county commissioners and other officers in various parts of the Territory.

Looking

For a suitable present for a friend's wedding gift, well we have it in the new arrivals of hand painted china and Libbey's cut glass, and are offering some special bargains in Mexican drawn work, also. And we don't believe that you could select anything from our entire stock of this class that the Bride would want to send back but if she does she may exchange it for anything in our stock.

and naturally would like to have his own county as clean as others.

The Democratic voters chose Commissioners Atkinson and White at the primaries as candidates for re-election. It was an open field and fair contest, the vote being overwhelmingly in favor of both. Their records were as well known then as they are now, and the action of the primaries will be ratified at the November election.
